General Solutions/fixes		Rewarding or Claiming Rewards	Safety	Ease of Access	Communication
Social media like app	Website to post found and lost items	Bounties for lost items	Verification, so people don't steal items	Easy to understand and use	Ability to comment on information about lost items
Item tracker	Promoting lost items onto social media to bring more awareness	Ranking System for how valuable the item is to the user	Be able to contact police through application if lost item is suspected to be stolen instead of lost	Tags that can be attached to items in order to help prevent from being lost	Ability to control the same item from being brought up
Some way to show where the user was throughout the day	Be able to post missing items for multiple people to see	Reputation increase as you find and give back more items	User Reviews to show they are trustworthy	Ability to have notifications regarding the status of your lost item.	Direct text messages to contact about lost items
Area to store lost items	If the item is lost on the university campus, include a separate office where people can go and turn it to that office. Then people who lose their item can go to the office and collect.	Linking reward to user's bank to claim reward	To find the lost items they can seek assistance from the higher authorities.	Easy place to show where item was last seen	Mail System to mail items to person